OBJECTIVES

- To provide quality education for students from rural and backward areas.
- To conduct seminars, workshops, conferences, value added programmes to encourage students professionally with human moral values.
- To provide knowledge to students through library which has wide collection of books and journals.
- To make the students actively participate in various social welfare programmes and institutional celebrations like teachers day, freshers day for the new joining, women's day, farewell etc.
- To support and encourage students to participate in training programmes in community health, hospital pharmacy, industrial pharmacy, pharmaceutical manufacturing industries and health camps.
- To govern body meetings for the approval of academic and developmental activities

The institution's vision and mission lay the groundwork for its quality policies, which are also influenced by stakeholder needs and societal expectations. The quality policy is put into practice by building the required facilities and a supportive work environment. In order to create and update the Institute's policies, it is essential to consider the views of students, parents, and other stakeholders.

IQAC develops a prospective plan after considering all stakeholder input. The governing body is then presented with the proposed plan for approval.
